Manor Hill's the place to be a champion

Dear Parents and Carers,

It has been a lovely week here at Manor Hill!

On Monday we introduced Women's History Month in our assembly looking at a selection of significant women from History. The children are enjoying exploring the Little People, Big Dreams book series sharing books about these famous females between each class.

It was super to welcome so many parents from Little Learners into school for our workshops on Foundations to Phonics this week, thank you for your feedback on this event.

On Wednesday we welcomed Mr Keay our Trust Director of Education into school, he spent lots of time with the children talking about their learning, we were very proud of them all.

We are incredibly excited to celebrate World Book Day in school next week on Thursday 7th and look forward to seeing the story spoons and costumes on Thursday.

Have a lovely weekend,

Jess Roden
